Let there be Light

LET THERE BE LIGHT

I feel its touch, beseech the sky
> And the heavens open up, it cries
 With grief and sorrow not mine.

Eternal shadows cut across the back
> Soiled, polluted shadows, fiends of black
 Together they play.

Cobalt waves of cold, dance
> Across the murky plains, thunder races
 Divinity reigns.

Eyes not his, feelings spurned
> A mind, a heart, a soul lost and churned
 In a world of despair.

Lightning streaks over the horizon
> From the darkness bursts forth a light
 And this time through the smoldering fire

Mouths open wide they scream.

End
file.
